

Arts Partners for Learning

Goals for 2013 – 2014

Summer 2013

- Quarterly Leadership Team meeting
- Announce Year 2 programs selected by APL Review Committee
- Refine and adopt program evaluation tools and procedures
- Offer summer enrichment programs
- Launch APL programs in Erie and Niagara as part of Arts Access program
- Update website to market 2013-2014 APL programs and create searchable database
- Prepare and disseminate APL School Program Applications (August)
- Hold orientation training for arts and cultural programs with emphasis on APL school program implementation procedures and evaluation
- Plan Fall 2013 Arts Abilities conference
- Begin planning 2014 professional development forums

Fall 2013

- Quarterly Leadership Team meeting
- Market APL programs to area schools and teachers
- Pilot evaluation and reporting tools
- APL School Program Application submissions reviewed and schools selected (October)
- Begin working with schools to book and customize APL programs
- Launch APL programs as part of Buffalo Arts and Technology Center and Say Yes to Education partnerships
- Hold APL professional development forum in conjunction with Arts Abilities conference
- Continue planning 2014 professional development forums

Winter 2014

- Quarterly Leadership Team meeting
- Finalize plans for professional development events and print postcard invitation
- Hold Professional Development forums for teachers and arts and cultural organizations
- Review and refine evaluation and assessment tools and procedures
- Market APL programs and generated new outreach efforts to promote APL
- Prepare status report for the public and stakeholders on first year activities
- Discuss and plan 2014 RFP for new APL programs
- Secure New York State Council on the Arts funding for 2014
- Hold meetings with Say Yes to Education and Buffalo Arts and Technology Center to review partnership activities

Spring 2014

- Quarterly Leadership Team meeting
- Review meetings with Arts Services Initiative, Give for Greatness, and Theatre Alliance of Buffalo to review status of Arts Access collaborative program for low income families
- Begin planning next series of professional development events (for Summer/ Fall)
- Finalize third year RFP and disseminate widely to arts and cultural community
- Review new program submissions from RFP through Committee process
- Assist potential RFP applicants in submitting programs through drop in events, email
- Review program evaluations and data and refine tools and procedures

Arts Partners for Learning: Goals for 2013 – 2014

Arts Partners for Learning is a community initiative managed by Young Audiences of Western New York with administrative support from the Arts Services Initiative of Western New York, Inc.

Phone: (716) 881-0917 – email: info@aplwny.org – website: www.aplwny.org